For the prevention and cure o
ILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
HN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended h a degree of success highly grateful the inventor's feelings in several parts the West Indies and in the Southern l Middle States, &c.
The testimony of a number of persons be adduced, who have reason to be-ve that a timely use of this salutary redy has, under Providence, preserved ir lives when in the most alarming cirnstances.
Facts of this conclusive nature speak re in favour of a medicine than conns of pompous eulogy founded on re assertion.
It is not indeed presumptuously prosed as an infallible cure, but the invenhas every possible reason that can re-lt from extensive experience for be-ving that a dose of these Pills taken ce in every two weeks during the prelence of our bilious fevers, will prove infallible preventive; and further, at in the earlier stages of those diseases eir use will very generally succeed in storing health, and frequently in cases steemed desperate and beyond the pow-of common remedies.
The operation of these pills is perfectly ild, so as to be used with safety by per-ons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry ff superfluous bile and prevent its morid secretions—to restore and amend the ppetite—to produce a free perspiration nd thereby prevent colds which are ofen of fatal consequences. A dose never ails to remove a cold if taken on its first ppearance: they are celebrated for renoving habitual costiveness—sickness at he stomach and severe head-ache—and ught to be taken by all persons on a hange of climate.
They have been found remarkably effiacious in preventing and curing disor-lers attendant on long voyages, and hould be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of

Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.

The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations, which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.

The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.

The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.

The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octave volumes, of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U. States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

Agricultural.

From Notices for a Young Farmer, by Judge Peters.

Plough and harrow soddy fields in the fall; and add Lime, harrowed in that season if it be within your power. In addition to other advantages of this operation you will thereby escape either wholly or for the most part, the annoyances of the Corn Grubs. In what mode the destruction of the grubs, or the eggs of their parent, (be it a Beetle, or what it may; for on this subject, there are varieties of opinions:) is by these operations accomplished, or their ravages prevented' is a subject of laudable curiosity, but the fact of the purpose being achieved is all important; and in numerous instances, incontestibly proved. That spring ploughing is generally inefficacious, is too frequently and fatally known. Instances of failure to produce the effect mentioned, by fall ploughing, have been adduced.—On examination into the facts of some, it is found, that the operation has been performed either well, or in due time, and only partially; and in other cases either uncommon grub years, or other peculiar circumstances, have occurred. The great balance of fact is, most assuredly, favorable to this practice, and warrants its adoption. It is so beneficial in other respects, that it should be followed, even without regard to its effects on the grub. Some acute diseases defy remedies, as dams and mounds resist common floods; yet yield to extraordinary inundations.—Nevertheless, medicine, and medical skill, and preventives of overflows, should not be set at nought. Nor should any beneficial operation in husbandry be disregarded, because it does not in every instance succeed.

Fall ploughing enables you to plant corn early: and it is better thus to risk spring frosts, which do less injury to your plants than do early frosts in autumn to the corn fully grown.

It is alleged by several highly respectable farmers, that in holes made near the hills with a pointed stick, inconceivable numbers of grubs have perished. In a letter to the society, on the information of one who actually experienced the fact, it appears, that by a ditch dug for the purpose across the field, the passage of cut worms from a field which had been destroyed to one uninjured, was obstructed, and six bushels of grubs were thus collected. This would seem indubitably to prove that they are migratory, and to show the consequences of leaving part of a field unploughed in the autumn, which affords harbor for grubs, which may from thence wander over the fall ploughed portion. Several farmers have escaped the grub, by steeping the seed corn in spirits of turpentine, and rolling it in plaister.

Soddy ground should be rolled, and well harrowed, in the direction of the furrows, after being broken up so deeply as to place beyond vegetation, the sod; and by thus excluding air, and by clean, shallow, and frequent stirring, so as not to disturb it, to promote its decay without a capacity to grow. The dead fibres, (nature's restoratives,) are thus retained in the soil, for appropriate manures.—Lime, plaster, marle, &c. to co-operate with. The sod left on edge, either dries uselessly, or vegetates, with all its pests.

The ROLLER is too little used, and mistakingly supposed to consolidate too much; whereas it crushes and separates clods and loosens the soil. On clay, and heavy ground, the SPIKY ROLLER is best, as it is on all hide bound surfaces—of meadows and mowing grounds particularly; but, like all other operations, rolling must be performed judiciously, and adapted to soils and circumstances. Few, indeed, are the soils, on which it is not highly beneficial.

FOR THE ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

The following extract from the debates of the British parliament was copied by me several years ago, and has ever since remained among the neglected papers of my bureau. Having stumbled upon it this morning by mere accident, it occurred to me that I could in no way dispose of it so well, as by sending it to you, to be published as a specimen of the peculiar style of wit with which the late Richard Brinsley Sheridan so frequently delighted his auditors and played upon his majesty's ministers. During the debate on the tobacco excise act, in which it was said by a person of some importance in the political world, that Mr. Pitt had the argument, and Sheridan the wit on his side, the latter, borrowing his terms from the subject, thus described the progress and manufacture of the bill in question. "The original leaf (said he) after a chemical tinge from the crown lawyers, and being dusted and sifted at the treasury, receives a permit from the house of commons; but who, Mr. Speaker, shall guard against the dispensing powers with which the commissioners are armed?—Assisted by the hint of some damn'd good natured friend, they may say to an unfortunate smuggler, 'you opposed government at the general election—you are a rank blue-and-buff; you have long carried on a contraband trade, and can expect no mercy; but for the person behind you, I see by his orange cape, that he is an honest fellow, he is not one of the meddling faction, which on every occasion is voting against us; his fine shall certainly be mitigated.'

"Besides, the commissioners, in an instance on record, have obliged parliament to sanctify error, and legalize false testimony; they have determined Clarke's hydrometer to be the best and only legal standard, although in a public court of justice, when a man was tried for keeping spirit above proof, it was determined that this hydrometer was false, inaccurate and erroneous, by the evidence of many respectable officers of the revenue, as well as the declaration of Clarke himself, the original inventor.

"Is it possible, sir, to provide against the capriciousness of an English climate; the different qualities, sweatings and fermentations, of an article like tobacco; which on one hogshead has been known to gain ten pounds in weight, and on another to lose forty; though landed together from the same ship, and kept in the same warehouse? Can you control fermentation by act of parliament?—Will the elements submit to the statute book? If, however, means can be invented to obviate these ojections, your excisemen must be sent forth with thermometers instead of ink bottles, hanging at their button holes; permits must be issued for damps and fogs; we must take security of Christmas for frost, and make August give a bond for fine weather."

Speaking of Mr. Sheridan, an elegant writer in London makes the following observations, which are no less correct in sentiment, than true and substantially founded in fact. 'Complaints of the slow rewards of eminent endowment, have been frequent; reams of paper have been moistened by the wailings of neglected merit.—Instead of argument or reply, I produce the member for Stafford; who, after surmounting the obstacles of unpleasing form, narrow fortune, peculiarly disqualifying paternal situation, ministerial frowns, and an unpopular opinion of his principles, has obtained a pre-eminence which enables him to meet, on even ground, the proud possessors of hereditary honor and wealth.

From the Beleponte Patriot.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Whereas my husband Benjamin has advertised me as having left his bed and board—but as he has no bed nor board (he having made over his property to his children with a view of starving me) he has now left me to shift for myself the second time. This is therefore to forewarn all persons from harboring him, until he provides for my maintenance, and gives security for that and his good behaviour.

To all good people who wants him described,
To running away he has long been addicted,
He deserted his country being scared at at a ball,
And run home the greatest hero of all!
For such service as this he obtained a pension,
How well he deserved it I need not mention;
But one thing for all I needs must acknowledge,
He's the worst husband God ever made to my knowledge.

ALEXANDRIA:
THURSDAY, MAY 14, 1818.

ST LUCIA.

Mr. James Scott, passenger in the brig Mentor, arrived yesterday in 20 days from St. Lucia, furnishes the following information: That the port of St. Lucia had been opened to neutral vessels, agreeable to proclamation; that a subsequent order had been received from the prince regent, and the port was closed on the 22d April; which order had been fully carried into effect by the new governor of the island.

The trial of John Alexander, the second Mail robber, commenced yesterday morning—The jury retired, and in about two hours returned a verdict of guilty.

We learn, that, a deputation of Indians, from some of the tribes, went into St. Augustine, on last Monday week, with an interpreter, for the purpose of ascertaining, from the governor, whether it was his wish, or advisable for them, to take up arms against the white inhabitants, and attack the frontier, or no;—and whether they should oppose the forces under general Jackson. The governor returned for answer, that it was his decided wish, that they should not take up arms, or make the least resistance to any of the United States' troops, should they even enter their towns. He requested them to return home, and adhere to his advice, and enjoined on them the necessity of giving up, forthwith, the negroes that are with them, who have either been stolen or run away from their owners, in Georgia and elsewhere.—The number of fugitives with the Indians are supposed to be between two and three hundred—Provisions are scarce and high in Augustine; and the inhabitants of that place are apprehensive of a visit from general Jackson. WORTHY OF NOTICE.

Yesterday, at the lower end of Pearl street, a large sow, while feeding upon turnips, got one in her throat, was choaked and fell. The bystanders concluded she must die. An honest son of Neptune came up, and observed that he could perform an operation that would save her. The owner of the animal consented—and Jack out with his knife and cut off about three inches of her tail. It produced a struggle—the turnip went down, and in a few minutes the sow recovered, got up, and returned to her repast.

VICTORY AND GLORY!

The Reward of Valor and Patriotism.

[Concluded.]

NEW GRENADA.

Very recent news has reached us from the interior of said kingdom by the frequent arrivals we have here from Santa Martha and Carthagena. The heroic death of the immortal female Salabarrieta, a youth interesting for her beauty and accomplishments, who, having scarcely concluded her 17th year, and shortly was to have been united by the ties of an honorable matrimony, was dragged from the sacred retirement of her family and friends, and shot in the public square of Santa Fee, by the command of savage despots, only because her correspondence with the Patriots, who were threatening to attack said capital, had been intercepted, advising them of its situation, so as to hasten their advancement, and thereby snatch or rescue her surviving countrymen from the fatal plunge of their cruel tyrant's uplifted dagger, ready to destroy whenever danger should approach; the unprecedented case of this unfortunate but unrivalled heroine, who, while passing to the awful and last scene, amidst the silent crowd, exclaimed (though denied absolution by the priest unless she would expose her accomplices, which she indignantly refused to do) with a thoughtful smile of contempt, as if bidding defiance to the terrors of her inhuman butchers, "weep not for me, but for the slavery and oppression of your dejected fellow countrymen, and by my fate rise to resist the wrongs you so unjustly suffer;" and about to expire, she turned towards her executioners, saying, with consummate valor, and with an audible voice, "assassins, tremble; consummate your horrid deed: quickly shall come those who will avenge my death." Yes, this unheard of cruelty has excited amongst some few of her compatriots, fired with the sentiments of true honor and liberty, an inextinguishable odium in their breasts, which sooner or later, will, by the aid of the incomparable and enthusiastic defenders of their unalienable rights and independence, the Venezuelians, burst asunder their fetters of ignominy and servitude, and overwhelm, like the desolation of a flood, the tyrants of their beautiful, but now degraded country.

Already a division from Venezuela, of 1500 men, under the command of Nonato Peres, which took Pampelona in October last, one of the provinces of New Grenada, destroyed at the close of February, the only force that could be sent against it of 400 men, from Santa Fee, at a place called Sogamozo, 80 leagues from the said capital of the kingdom; only 70 out of the whole escaped—in consequence of this, a revolution against the royalists was unfortunately discovered only 4 hours previous to the time fixed on for its accomplishment; and on the 6th of March ult. 43 individuals were shot by the order of Samlano, the new vice-roy, in the square of the aforesaid city. The patriots have since advanced from Sagamozo to a place called Caquisa, only 14 leagues from Santa Fee, upon which they were marching, and inevitably it has fallen ere this, as the vice-roy and his gidores are on their way for Carthagena, from whence Tiere, the governor, is about to dispatch 30 or 40 of the indulto persons for Spain, although Ferdinand by the same pardon, had pretended to exempt them from any future criminal process. Thus much of the faith of the stupid Ferdinand and his unprincipled satellites.

LIMA AND THE PACIFIC OCEAN.

By the arrival of a man of war, from Porto Bello, 4 or 5 days since, we ascertain by the passengers, &c. that the Callao de Lima, had, for a length of time, been blockaded by the Patriots, with a naval force of 27 vessels of war; which, they state, must unquestionably have surrendered, as the gallant Generals San Martin and Belgrano, were in the vicinity with a formidable army. The Pacific Ocean is covered with the Independent cruizers, and Panama itself blockaded. He who may wish to doubt this news, can no longer do so, when he is informed, that not a single bale of merchandize has been exported from thence for many months; and where there are now upwards of 15,000 packages of goods in store: two vessels, however, a few weeks since, were loaded at said port with 3000 bales each, to proceed to San Blas; one of them was captured in sight of Panama, and of the other, nothing has been heard. And, it is a fact, that merchandize is now selling their for its principal cost in this Island, from whence it has been purchased. The man of war has only brought $200,000, whereas some 8 or 10 months prior to this, $1,000,000 and $1,500,000, was the common quantity shipped on board such vessels every convoy, to be employed here, and afterwards forwarded to the different ports in the Pacific. The 200,000 now received, are not to be expended for the purchase of merchandize, but to pay in part the merchants who have been accustomed to give credit to Spaniards engaged in that commerce hitherto; and, that I presume to say, that a million and an half would not liquidate the accounts of the different mercantile houses in this city, and the Spanish establishment in Panama, Lima, &c. The commerce of this place with the Pacific, has now become entirely extinct.

And is it possible, that the Republican Government of the United States, my native and happy country, (as I have said upon a former occasion) aware of what has occurred, and is still passing on the grand tragical theatre of South America, should have beheld, until the present crisis, with such indifference, the sacred cause of the Independence of her Brethren; who attracted by that star of freedom which they had seen to glisten with such splendor in that of the liberal government of North America, became electrified by the same spark of liberty, and they, in imitation of the United States, resolved to perish for the same, although it should cost them an ocean of blood? Yet, alas! though their native soil has actually been drenched in blood, and their plains strewed with the dry bones and skulls of the first of her sons, and bleached by the scorching rays of a tropical sun, they have not been so fortunate as were the North Americans, to enjoy, as the reward of their most lamentable sacrifices, the sweets of freedom. And who knows but what the fate of North America would have been as disastrous as that, until the present time, of South Columbia, if France had not, with her squadrons and troops, aided her glorious revolution, and Holland with her treasures opened, poured into lap herall those resources, which result from such honorable tokens of friendship and justice? Why then has not the government of the United States been actuated by the same dignified sentiments of consideration for her brethren of South America, as were the most distant nations of Europe towards them, when struggling for a cause equally as just, and no more so than that which their fellow companions of the New World have espoused? Methinks, that if I could rise to address, even with my feeble talents, the assembled inhabitants of North America, relative to the cause which has induced the South American Patriots to take up arms against a Tyrant's cruelty, and fight for those rights, which they (the United States) now enjoy; yes, methinks, they would demand of their government why it had slumbered in possession of liberty and tranquility, whilst the terrified sound of the clashing of arms of their brethren of the South, which was almost to be heard from the field of carnage, ought to have aroused them from their lethargy, and prompted them to assist without delay, their incessant struggles. The utility that would result to the government, and consequently the inhabitants of North America, would far exceed all those advantages that have, or ever will be received, from the whole nations of the world combined; because the North Americans never will have to cross more the Atlantic than, to obtain all those supplies and superfluities which abound in the various nations of Creation, as they are to be found in profusion, in this, the finest and most delightful portion of the Globe.

Was I to give you a description of the country I now have reference to, as it really deserves, it would lengthen my letter to volumns. But suffice it to say, that the delicacies of the universe are centered in the immense continent of South America. For with reason it may be observed, that her mountains are of gold and silver, and her vallies present to the passing traveller, the productions of every clime.

But I am happy to see that our illustrious President MONROE, has at last manifested an interest for their cause, and that the representatives of the Union have taken into serious consideration, the steps the U. States ought to adopt in future relative to the fate of so many millions of souls, panting for the perpetual reign of freedom, and consequently happiness.

The names of a Monroe, a Clay, a Robertson, a Forsyth, a Neilson, and various others who have dared to vindicate the rights of South America, will be inscribed with demonstrations of eternal gratitude, upon the pages of South American History; as have been enrolled the endearing names of a La Fayette, a D'Estaing, and a De Grasse, on those of the United States, and deposited in the archives of her imperishable, Republic. And it is cordially to be hoped that the decision of Congress, will at the present session, be united in an acknowledgement of the independence of South America, entire; and there gather new glory and applause amongst all philanthropic nations and people, by a deed so just and exemplary.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE's MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficatious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, cheeks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions	Indigestion
Lowness of spirits	Melancholy
Loss of appetite	Gout in the stomach
Impurity of b'ood	Pains in the limbs
Hysteric'l affection	Relaxations, etc.
Inward weaknesses and debility

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,
